

Dear Customers,

We at The Poet have been watching all the news and announcements concerning the current pandemic, along with all of you, and trying to decide what is in the best interests of our staff and valued customers.

We have evaluated providing a takeaway and free delivery locally and also a shopping service for those of you who are self isolating.

However given the severity of the situation around Europe and the current government guidelines on social distancing we feel it is most prudent at this time to protect peoples health and encourage people to adhere to the policy rather than encourage them to break it.

As a result, for the sake of public health, we will not be opening our doors or offering Takeaway Services until the picture is clearer.

It is clear today that a lot of people are not complying and are putting their lives and the lives of others in danger as well as overwhelming our front line NHS workers.

Thank you all for your support over the last few years and we very much look forward to welcoming you back when this is over.

Take care, STAY SAFE !!

Best wishes,
Andy, Petrus, Debbie, Chris

and all of your friends on the team at The Poet.
